FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY FEE SCHEDULE AND RETAINER AGREEMENT

Introduction

This agreement memorializes the terms of your retaining me as a forensic expert in Psychology. As my Curriculum Vitae reveals, I serve as an expert witness in a variety of legal proceedings. I am triple board certified by the American Board of Professional Psychology, the American Board of Pediatric Neuropsychology, and the National Board of Forensic Evaluators. I perform a variety of neuropsychological and psychodiagnostic evaluations used in civil and criminal cases and testify regarding my results and other available case information.

I set forth the terms of my engagement in writing in order to avoid misunderstandings. I ask that you indicate your agreement by executing your copy of this letter and returning it to me, along with your check for the retainer fee.

Services

A forensic psychological service is a psychological evaluation, consultation, or expert witness service that is undertaken for legal purposes. I provide forensic psychological services to a law firm who is the client. The litigant is not my client.

A forensic psychological evaluation consists of utilizing a variety of techniques for determining and then documenting an individual's psychological and/or cognitive status. These techniques include clinical interviews, mental status examinations, psychodiagnostic testing (e.g., standardized questionnaires, cognitive tests, personality tests), cognitive assessments when necessary, review of relevant records, interviews with collateral sources, research, conferences with attorneys or others, and preparation of written report if requested by an attorney or the court. I may form and providing findings, impressions, opinions, conclusions, and recommendations regarding the legal issue(s) at hand. Once the evaluation is complete, I may be asked to provide testimony in a deposition or a court.

Since I do not have access to the court system except through counsel who retains me, please note that I depend on you to obtain various records from the plaintiff, the defendant, or from third parties via subpoena. In certain cases, I will furnish you separately with a list of records that I will need for you to obtain from the plaintiff, the defendant, or from third parties via subpoena. My effectiveness as an expert witness will depend to a great degree on my having access to these records. Similarly, I will need your help in arranging for a mental examination of a litigant and if allowed, access to collateral sources for interviews. As you know, if a litigant does not agree to such an examination, a motion to the court will be necessary and such a motion must be brought far enough in advance of the discovery cutoff to permit an examination to occur within the discovery period.

Also, sometimes opposing counsel or the court will attempt to place restrictions or conditions on mental examinations, such as time limits, limits on topics of inquiry, or requiring the presence of outsiders. Please do not agree to any such restrictions or conditions, or fail to oppose them in court, without consulting with me, as such restrictions or conditions can significantly impair my effectiveness as an examiner.

Confidentiality

The usual laws governing confidentiality between psychotherapist and patient do not apply to the relationship or information obtained during the course of the forensic evaluation. Information obtained in the course of the forensic evaluation will be shared with the individual's attorney. This policy also recognizes my use of professional test scoring services, and other professional consultation as deemed advisable by me. Be aware that in certain instances the law requires me to disclose privileged information, for example, in situations of suspected child abuse, of potential harm to oneself or another, and in instances where the court orders the disclosure of privileged information and records.

Location of Provision of Services

Except where special arrangements have been made, all forensic psychological services will be provided at my primary office. Depositions may be scheduled in these offices or at another office in the greater Los Angeles area. Travel time will be calculated into the fee if the deposition or forensic psychological services do not take place at my office.

Fees

All forensic psychological services (including but not limited to administration of testing and assessments, collaborative interviews, attorney consultation, scoring and interpretation, records review, affidavits, declarations, report writing, and travel time) with the exception of depositions or court testimony, are billed at a rate of $400 per hour. Charges are calculated in 15 minute increments. I also bill for out of pocket expenses, such as travel, conference room rental, telephone calls, overnight delivery and courier services and the like. Please note that telephone or in-person conferences are considered billable time.

Deposition or courtroom testimony is billed at a rate of $5200 per 8 hour day. Depositions have a 2 hour minimum, and courtroom testimony have a half-day minimum. This rate applies to office or courtroom waiting time as well as actual time testifying (In proceedings requiring an hourly billing rate, this would be $ 650/hour).

If required to be on call, the rate is $3200 per 8 hour day ($400 per hour I am required to be on call) and I will need to know at least one week in advance which hours of the day I am requested to hold all other professional activities for this purpose. When more than eight hours of work is performed in one day, the actual time will be prorated using my hourly rate.

The financially responsible party shall be the law firm by whom I am retained. The responsible party shall pay the fees and disbursements for all time and services provided by me. I will not accept payment from the litigant directly. If the litigant fails to attend the evaluation, fails to provide more than 48 hours notice of cancellation, or fails to cooperate with the evaluation, the financially responsible party shall be responsible for full payment for time allotted for the evaluation.

Cancellation Policy

Please provide as much time as possible in advance to schedule appointments for providing forensic psychology services, including depositions and/or courtroom testimony.

Since at least a half day is set aside for a mental examination or evaluation, late cancellations are highly disruptive to my schedule and to my other patients. If an evaluation appointment is cancelled within 7 calendar days for any reason, including settlement, there is a $1500 cancellation fee.

Because of the greater time commitment involved in being available for deposition or courtroom testimony, the full half-day charge of $2600 will be assessed if such service is cancelled or continued with less than 72 hours' notice.

When I am asked to be on-call and I am notified with 48 hours of notice or more that I will not be needed for courtroom testimony, I will charge only 50% of my stated on call rate. If notified less than 48 hours in advance, the entire on call rate ($3200 per 8 hour day or $400 per hour) will be assessed.

Payment Policy

After I am retained, I will record all billable hours and detail the services conducted, and submit invoices to you every 30 days.

Payment for depositions should be paid in full on the day my deposition is taken. Payment for courtroom testimony should be made 72 hours in advance of the offering of such testimony unless other arrangements are made on a case by case basis. If required to be on call, 50% of my hourly rate must be made 72 hours in advance of the on call day (and if I am not needed for courtroom testimony that will be the only rate assessed). All other hours billed must be paid to Dr. Judy Ho within 30 days of the invoice date unless otherwise arranged. For all balances outstanding over a 30-day period without explicit arrangement, interest will be charged on the outstanding amount at the rate of 15% APR.

Attorney Fees

In the event of any action to enforce rights under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled its costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in connection with such action.

Retainer or Court Order

A retainer of $4000 is due at least 24 hours before the first consultation or evaluation session with me and before I may be identified to opposing counsel or to the court as having been retained by the law firm. Initial time will be billed against this retainer, and I shall return any unused remaining portion of the retainer to the payer when applicable. In lieu of a retainer, a court order or other document guaranteeing payment will be required.

Acknowledging Signatures

If these terms are acceptable to you, please sign where indicated below on the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to me with the initial retainer of $ 4,000.00, payable to DR. JUDY HO, INC.

All agreements and contracts with me are in writing. Any modification of the terms of this agreement must be in writing and signed by me. I, in agreeing to provide this forensic psychological service, am specifically relying on the responsible party's agreement to abide by all the terms of this agreement. An authorized representative of the law firm retaining me shall signify agreement by signing below.

Thank you for your confidence. I look forward to working with you on this matter.
